The National Guard Bureau (NGB), Comptrollers Division, NGB-ARC and the National Guard Chapter of the American Society of Military Comptrollers (AMSC) are pleased to announce the National Guard Professional Development Institute March 18 through 23, 2007 in Orlando, FL.

This year's agenda includes a wide variety of opportunities to assist you in conquering the transformation challenges we will face as we execute mission one for the National Guard. – The defense of our homeland both at home and abroad. You will be able to meet and network with other professionals as well as enhancing your current knowledge. Our theme this year is Transformation – "If We Don't Change, We Don't Grow". This year's event will challenge you, as well as your organization, to step out of your comfort zones to expand your horizons.

March 18 is designated as the travel and registration day. The Monday morning Opening Ceremony will include a salute to our own financial management deployed soldiers and featured keynote speaker. Tuesday and Wednesday mornings will comprise the general sessions of the conference with presentations by the National Guard Bureau Comptroller Staff. The conference concludes Thursday afternoon with featured speaker: LTG Clyde Vaughn. A myriad of general and specific functional area workshops will round out the week. Friday, March 23 is a travel day. Attendance will be taken at the many different workshops therefore participation is mandatory to collect your continuing education credits. Certificates and credits will be sent in the mail based upon your participation with six weeks of the conclusion of the event. Special events and social activities are scheduled throughout the conference week.

Pledge of Professionalism

As a member of the American Society of Military Comptrollers, I pledge to:

Be guided in all activities by loyalty to the highest principles, always remembering that public office is a public trust.

Refrain from activities which are in conflict with the public interest or are discreditable to the society, and to avoid activities which create the appearance of such conflict.

Exercise diligence, objectivity and integrity in professional activities, ever aware of the responsibility to eliminate improprieties.

Refrain from the transmission or usage, for personal gain or advantage, of information obtained in the professional environment.

Carefully earn, and continuously protect my reputation for good moral character in comptrollership.

Recognize that professional example will influence associates and efficiency.

Continuously strive to increase my professional knowledge and skills, to improve service and value to associates and the Society.

Extend the same consideration to the rights and interests of others that I seek for myself.

Respect the professionalism of fellow members and work with them to promote the goals and programs of the Society.
